

The Benefits of Becoming a Commissioning Professionals Society Member

✓ — Register
✓ — Here

● CPS Periodical

The Commissioning Professionals Society periodical will feature case studies, op eds, discussion topics, and news from around the world as it pertains to commissioning and startup of energy projects. It will be a quarterly publication that offers exposure to the world's most successful projects and professionals.

● The Commissioning Professionals Symposium

Every member of the Commissioning Professionals Society is offered a reduced rate for the annual Symposium. The knowledge and networking that comes from the event are worth the investment of time and effort to attend. Many have secured job opportunities from the event.

● Access

The world's leading energy companies are involved with CPS and as a member, you will be as well. Speakers, exhibitors, and sponsors are all from organizations that can aid to advance your career.

● Employment Opportunities

CPS is the global community for commissioning and startup professionals around the world. Being a member gives you access to the message and job board for potential job opportunities.

● Help Shape CPS for the Future

Your participation as a member of CPS will enable us to grow the CPS community, building a strong foundation and platform from which to grow, focusing on standardization and training

● Updates on CPS Initiatives

As a member, you will be the first to know about new CPS initiatives, opportunities, and news.

● Networking

CPS is an ideal place for commissioning professionals to network and gain professional acquaintances and friendships. It is also a place to obtain knowledge from peers with experience in all areas of commissioning and startup.